

What is Shots 4 Tots?

Shots For Tots, launching Labor Day 2012, creates collectors glassware with a charitable heart. A generous portion of every glass sold goes to four keystone charities. A display of 48 collector's shot glasses will be sold to restaurants, pubs & stores with the S4T logo on one side of & the retail outlet's logo on the other side, thus encouraging people to collect many & continue giving to charity. Monies sent to recipient charities will come from initial sale of the glassware into these outlets.
